

QUIZ 1:
GENERAL CONSIDERATIONS

Name _____

Date _____

Hour _____

Topic: 3185A
General Considerations

True or False

1. _____ An auction is the best place to buy a horse for a beginner.
2. _____ It makes no difference at all as to how old a horse is when you are buying it.
3. _____ Conformation is important.
4. _____ Blemishes can be hidden so it isn't a factor to be concerned about when buying a horse.
5. _____ A stallion is the best buy, it is the easiest to handle plus it is the least expensive.
6. _____ It is always to your advantage to check the reliability of the breeding farm you are buying from.
7. _____ The very best way to buy a horse is from a friend. That way you are sure of the horse you buy.
8. _____ The size of the horse usually won't affect the price of the horse unless it is smaller than average.
9. _____ Breeding farms are good places to look for horses.
10. _____ A favorite mount belonging to the stable where you are receiving instruction can be a safe purchase, because you are familiar with the horse.